

The Elrod-Hill Law Firm, LLC

Estate Planning, Elder and Disability Law

Estate
Planning
Essentials

Workshop
providing you peace of mind

CALL TO RESERVE YOUR SPACE

Sep 18 2008 | 10:00 a.m.
Sep 20 2008 | 10:00 a.m.

The Keller Williams Office
The Forum

3930 E. Jones Bridge Road
Suite 100 ♦ Norcross GA 30092

Oct 21 2008 | 10:00 a.m.
Oct 23 2008 | 6:30 p.m.

Office Suites Plus

5425 Peachree Pkwy ♦ Norcross GA 30092

rsvp | 770.416.0776
Ask for Taneka

ALSO, register online

www.elrod-hillfirm.com

CLICK on "Workshop Registration"

Also, check out our other workshops

Changes in Georgia Law Could Affect Your Estate Plan

As many of you know, in the past few years there have been major changes to laws governing estates, estate planning and qualifying for government assistance with nursing home bills. Laws which were in effect until recently may have changed dramatically.

There are some options still out there that will allow you to protect some or all of your assets while still becoming eligible for assistance with nursing home care expenses.

DISPEL
THE MYTHS

KNOW
THE FACTS

COMMON CONCERNS WE WILL ADDRESS

Issues

- AVOID PROBATE
- AVOID ESTATE TAXES
- GIFT TO YOUR CHILDREN and GRANDCHILDREN
- KEEP YOUR ASSETS

Questions

1. What is probate and do I need to avoid it?
2. Will I have to pay death taxes?
3. Can I protect my assets by giving them away?
4. If I give my assets to my kids, will Medicaid make them give them back?

KNOWLEDGE IS POWER.
Control and protect your estate by getting the facts.

Seating is limited
Please call to reserve your space

770-416-0776

GOAL OF WORKSHOP

To provide accurate, current, and vital information to those who have questions and concerns about Georgia law and how it will affect their unique estate planning process.

I look forward to seeing you at the workshop!
— Patricia Elrod-Hill, Esq.